

Southern Illinois Cannabis Science Center Faculty

Expectations:

- The research is relevant to the mission of the center
- They should file an annual report on the cannabis research-related activities, publications and grants
- In their publications they should acknowledge and list their affiliation with the center
- When giving presentations (talks, posters) they should acknowledge and list their affiliation with the center—include center logo
- Participate in Center sponsored events such as the annual hemp symposium, community outreach
- Help to promote the center

Benefits:

- Collaborative research network
- Access to Center sponsored funding opportunities
- Economic development opportunities
- Validation and promotion of cannabis-related research

Membership:

- Contact the director (cannabis-center@siu.edu) to apply for faculty membership in the CSC.

Please include:

- ~100 word blurb for the CSC website that states your interest and experience in cannabis science and a head shot for the faculty page at <https://cannabiscenter.siu.edu/meet-our-team/faculty.php>
- Include links to your department, lab, social media accounts etc for inclusion in the faculty list